

Wasp on honeycomb

This wasp is stealing honey from a honeybees' nest.

You can clearly see the difference between the two insects.

What do you notice about the legs?

What can you say about the differences in their abdomens?

Hint:- You should be able to notice something about the colour, shape and texture.